TECHNICAL GUIDELINES BASKETBALL 3 X 3

OVERVIEW

HOST CITY MONTERIA CORDOBA COLOMBIA: Montería, the capital city of the Department of Córdoba, is located in the northwestern part of the country, within Colombia's Caribbean region. Situated on the banks of the Sinú River—hence its nickname “Pearl of the Sinú”—it is also known as the “Cattle Capital of Colombia.” The city has a total population of 527,436 inhabitants and an average temperature ranging from 28°C to 32°C

Montería is a cultural city recognized for its traditional folk dances such as cumbia, porro, and fandango, as well as for its handicrafts made from natural fibers, such as the iconic sombrero vueltiao. It is home to major national events such as the corralejas and the National Cattle Fair, both of significant importance in Colombia.

PARTICIPANTS' DECLARATION

General Regulations – Art. 29 When submitting their registration, participants in the JEDECAC shall sign the following declaration: “I hereby declare, on my honor, that I will respect the Statutes of CONCECADE, the General Regulations of the Central American and Caribbean School Sports Games, the Competition Rules, and all other provisions of the Games, committing myself to participate under the principles of Fair Play, applying my utmost effort and technical skills.”

COMPETITION SYSTEM AND TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

The competition system will depend on the number of teams registered in each gender:

1. With three (3) teams – A double round-robin format will be played, with final standings determined by the highest points obtained.
2. With four (4) to six (6) teams – A single round-robin will be played. The top four teams in the standings will advance to the semifinals (1st vs. 4th and 2nd vs. 3rd). The winners will play for 1st place, and the losers will play for 3rd place.
3. With seven (7) to ten (10) teams – Two (2) groups will be formed, each playing a single round-robin. After the group stage, the top team from each group will play for 1st place, while the 2nd-place teams from each group will play for 3rd place.
4. With eleven (11) or more teams – Groups of 3 or 4 teams will be formed, each playing a single round-robin. The top four teams overall will advance to cross semifinals, with the winners playing for 1st place and the losers for 3rd place.

TECHNICAL GUIDELINES BASKETBALL 3 X 3

5. In all the above cases, the Technical Coordination of the host country may adjust the competition schedule to ensure that teams play an adequate number of games. This will be determined upon the close of the Nominal Registration.

b) Each game is played with 3 players on the court and one (1) substitute on the bench.

c) Game duration is a maximum of 10 minutes, with a scoring limit of 21 points in regular time. If tied at the end of regulation, the first team to score two (2) points in overtime wins the game.

d) Only for the first game of each competition day, a 15-minute grace period will be granted before the start. If a team fails to appear after this period, they will automatically lose by forfeit.

e) The official game ball will be the Wilson FIBA 3x3 (#6 synthetic).

g) Uniforms must be numbered from 04 to 15, displayed visibly on both the front and back.

h) Points will be awarded as follows:

- ❖ Game won: 2 points
- ❖ Game lost: 1 point
- ❖ Game lost by forfeit: 0 points.

i) The specific game rules will be followed in accordance with the Official FIBA 3x3 Basketball Rules.

PROTESTS AND CLAIMS

Article 39: Eligibility (by age or affiliation to educational institutions). Protests regarding an athlete's eligibility before the start of the Games shall be resolved by the JEDECAC Technical Committee for the specific sport discipline. Protests must be signed by the Head of Mission, Deputy Head of Mission, or the corresponding Sport Delegate. To confirm athlete eligibility, all delegations must present the original passports during the technical meetings. All Heads of Mission of the delegations will have access to these documents.

Article 40: The OC (Organizing Committee) and the CT-CONCECADE (Technical Commission of the Central American and Caribbean Sports Council) shall appoint a First Instance Appeals Tribunal for each sport, responsible for reviewing and resolving protests and claims submitted in its respective sport discipline.

This Tribunal will be composed of three (3) persons: the technical coordinator for the sport discipline and two representatives from the participating countries, elected during the informative technical meeting.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Any matters not provided for in this document shall be resolved by the Organizing Technical Commission of the JEDECAC.

In witness whereof, it is signed in August of the year two thousand twenty-five (2025).
